Monday night.

Dearest Dad and Mother,

I put real elegant love this under a separate stamp - but I consider that in this case it's not extravagance.

Please let me congratulate you on having gotten married twenty-three years ago. If it hadn't been for November 11, 1891, where would I be?

With wishes for many happy anniversaries to come and an especially happy day Wednesday,
troughly,
Janet.
